

Amazon Brand Registry:
Description of Complaint

[Company Name] ("Company") owns the [INSERT TRADEMARK NAME] (Registration No. ____). The registered mark consists [DESCRIBE THE TRADEMARK].

The infringement is for the unlawful use of the Company Trademark as to correlate it to the goods sold on the Amazon website to cause confusion and deception as to whether the goods emanate from Amazon seller or Company. Thereby causing initial interest and actual confusion. Specifically, the Amazon seller used the Company Trademark so that the parts look like Company product(s). None of the products are Company products. See images in the item listings that show the Trademark.
